

ILYA LYUBIMSKIY

FOUNDER & MANAGING ATTORNEY, PREMIER LEGACY LAW

Ilya Lyubimskiy is the founder and managing attorney of Premier Legacy Law, where he combines legal insight with a strong financial foundation to help clients preserve what matters most. As both an attorney and a Certified Public Accountant (CPA), Ilya brings a unique depth of expertise to estate planning, wills and trusts, probate and trust administration, and business formation planning.

With years of experience guiding individuals and families through the intricacies of legacy planning, Ilya is known for making complex legal concepts understandable, actionable, and personally relevant. His practice is rooted in the belief that estate planning is not just about documents—it's about people, values, and the future.

In addition to his legal work, Ilya is a passionate educator. He frequently teaches estate planning and probate topics to a wide range of audiences, including the general public, real estate professionals, Certified Public Accountants (CPAs), and Certified Financial Planners (CFPs). Whether presenting at professional workshops or community events, Ilya is recognized for his clear communication style, practical insights, and relatable examples that resonate with audiences of all backgrounds.

Ilya earned his undergraduate degree in accounting from Metropolitan State University of Denver and his Juris Doctor from the University of Denver Sturm College of Law. Outside the office, he enjoys spending quality time with his wife and their beloved fur babies.
